

ERASMUS PROJECT 2023 DIARY

Sunday 16th

- On Sunday we arrived in Scordia at 11 in the morning, where we went back to see our Italian partners and their families. then we went for a walk around Scordia and then we went for lunch.

In the afternoon we went to the terrace of a bar and then we went to have dinner with some Italians and their partners and we spent some more time in the street until we left.

Monday 17th

- On Monday we went to school and there the Italian teachers gave us a class about the places that Charles V visited. Then the Spanish went to an orange research center and they let us taste some oranges. After that some of us went to a barbecue at a colleague's house and we spent part of the afternoon there,
- Later everyone went home and we rested but not for long because we all met again in a bar until dinner time. We were with the families for a bit and in the evening we all went for a walk together

Tuesday 18th

- Tuesday morning we visited an arch that was in Augusta and then we went to Syracuse where we saw more emblematic monuments related to Charles V, then we had lunch and went to a huge cave where there was a lot of echo.
- At 5 in the afternoon we took the bus back to Scordia and stayed there before and after dinner.

Wednesday 19th

- On Wednesday we spent the whole morning at school working and we also had lunch there, then in the afternoon we went to visit Militello where we saw its town hall, its cathedral and an underground museum. then we went back to Scordia where we took a nap until time dinner and after dinner we went out for a while

Thursday 20th

- On Thursday morning we went Spanish and Italian to see Mount Etna and in the afternoon we visited Taormina and its Greek theater. Later, at 5 p.m. we took the bus back to Scordia where we sat on the terrace of a bar all together until dinner time and after dinner we met again.

Friday 21st

- On Friday morning we went to visit Randazzo and saw a couple of churches, then we went for lunch in Catania where we spent the afternoon and saw its main street and cathedral, then we returned to Scordia, we got ready and went out for dinner and stayed all together .

Saturday 22nd

- In the morning we went to school and worked a bit on some projects, then some of us went to lunch with our Italian hosts in a restaurant and we spent part of the afternoon there, then we went to dinner with our Italian families and in the evening we went out to say goodbye to everyone.

Sunday 23rd

- On Sunday we said goodbye to all the Italians and soon we went to Catania airport to take the flight to Madrid and in Madrid we stopped for lunch and went directly to Aguilar

