Sicily

Sunday

---

We left Aguilar at 2:00 and after 4 hours of travelling we arrived at Barajas where at 8:30 am we took the plane to Sicily.

We arrived in Catania at 12:00 am, then we travelled to Scordia where the italians were waiting for us.

I went to their house and rested from the trip. Later, we went to a kiosk where we had a drink and finally we went to a pizzeria for dinner.

Then I went to sleep.

Monday

I got up at 7:30 am and after breakfast we went to visit the school, after a talk by the teachers in the laboratory, we went to an experimental area of oranges, the director of the place talked us about the different types of oranges and other things.

Afterwards we went to school to make a presentation card of Charles V. After classes we went again to the kiosk and later we all went to eat together at a barbecue.

Then we went to sleep.

Tuesday

I got up at 7:30 am and after breakfast we went to school to take a bus to Syracuse and Augusta, where we visited many monuments and places that were rebuilt because of the earthquake of 1698.

After that we had dinner in the Italian house and then we went for a walk to see the town.

Finally I went to sleep.

Wednesday

I got up at 7:30 am and after breakfast we went to school to work on a project about making a Charles V ID card.

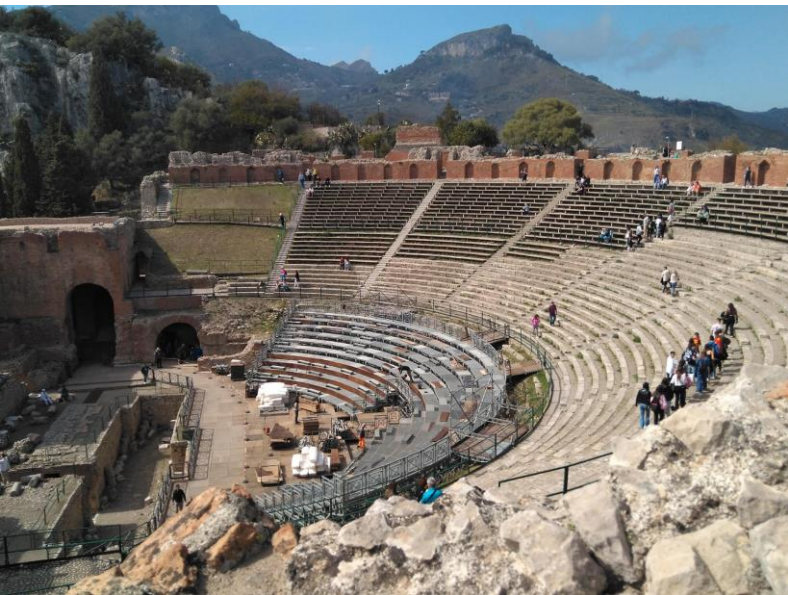

Then we had lunch there, later we took a bus to Militello, a place with 33 churches but we only saw three of them after that we returned to Scordia at 6:30 pm.

Then we went again to the kiosk.

Then I went to sleep.

Thursday

I got up at 7:30 am and after breakfast we went to school to take a bus to Etna but we didn't go to the top of the volcano.

After that we went to Taormina where we saw a Greek theatre, after that we returned to Scordia where we went again to the kiosk.

Then I went to sleep.

Friday

I got up at 7:30 am and after breakfast we took a bus to Randazzo where we visited the places where Charles V had been.

Then we took the bus again to go to Catania, where we saw the church and many other places built after the earthquake.

After that we returned to Scordia and after a nap we went with all people for a walk.

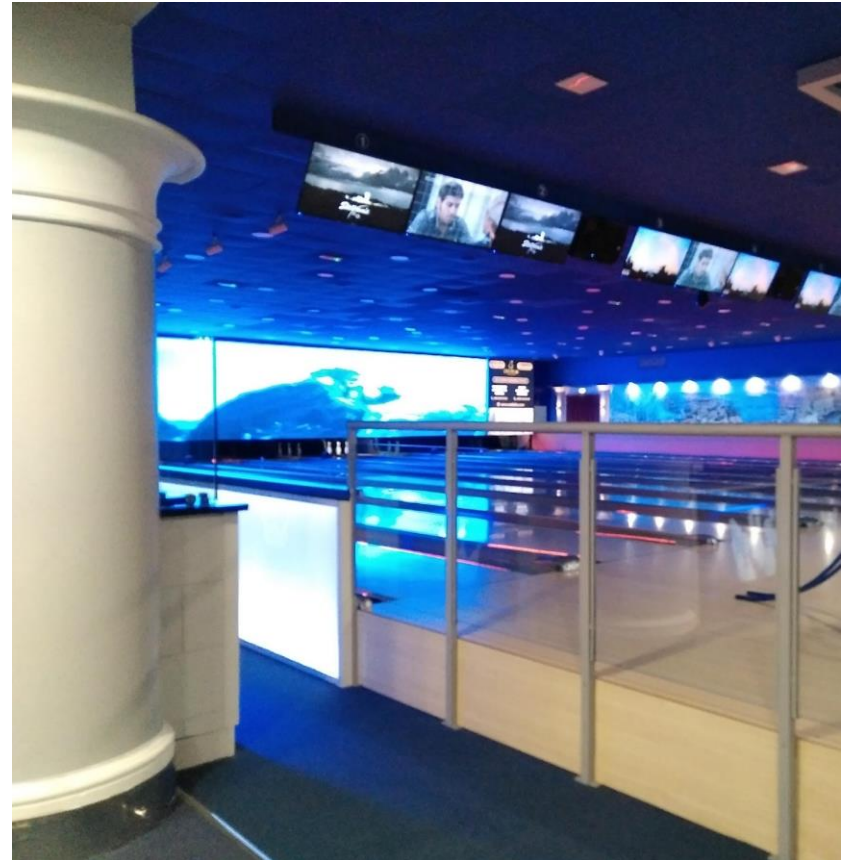

Then I went to sleep.

Saturday

- I got up at 7:30 am and after breakfast we went to school to listen to what the teachers were telling us.
- Then we went with my Italian family and Sergio's Italian family to a shopping centre to eat, then we went to a bowling alley, I didn't win.
- After that we went home because I was feeling sick and took a nap.
- After that we hung out with other spanish people.
- Then I went to sleep.

Sunday
