Day 1

- At 11 o'clock we arrived in Italy and then we went home with our correspondents to introduce ourselves and meet their relatives.
- After having lunch, I tidied things up in the room and we went out for a walk with several Italians. We were there talking for a while and we went for a walk.
- Later, we returned to Scordia and we all went to have dinner at a pizzeria and after that we stayed on the street for a while until it was time to go home.

Day 2

- At 8:30 we went to class and we had a talk about the history of Carlos V. They gave us some t-shirts and backpacks.
- And then only the Spaniards went to an orange farm where they explained us how everything worked and they let us try them.
- Then we started in groups to do a project about Carlos V.
- After class we went to have a barbecue with a group of Italians, we spent the afternoon there and then we each went home for dinner and went for a walk.

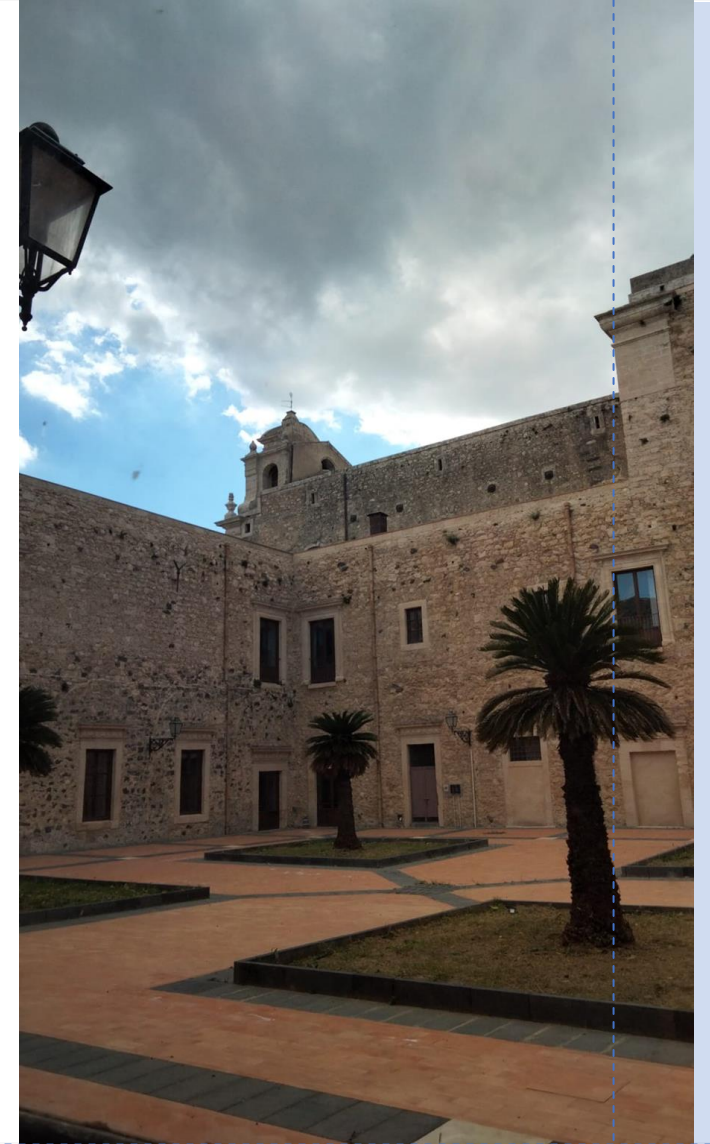

Day 3

- We went to Augusta and we saw the Spanish gate of Augusta.
- Then we went to Syracuse and we saw the ruins, the bridge of Umberto and a fountain.
- Then we had lunch at the Ai grani antichi restaurant and then we went to visit the Greek theater.
- Later, we returned to Scordia and after having dinner with his family we went out for a while to have a drink.

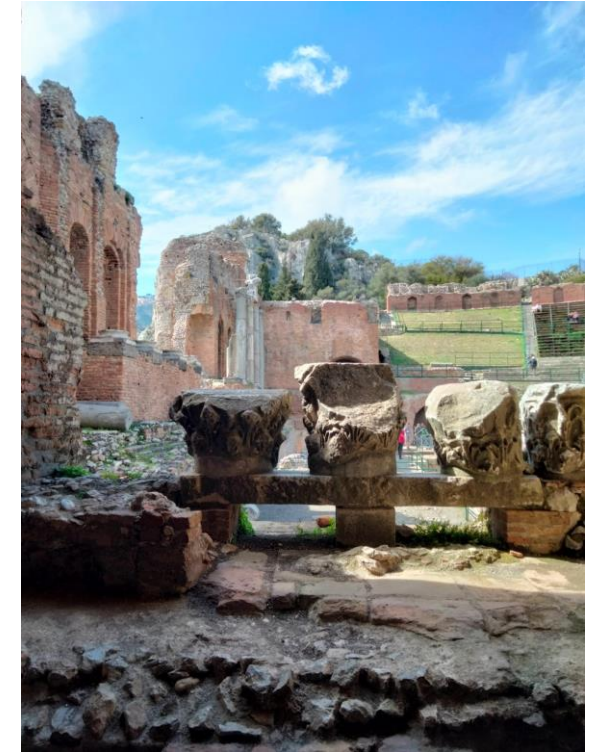

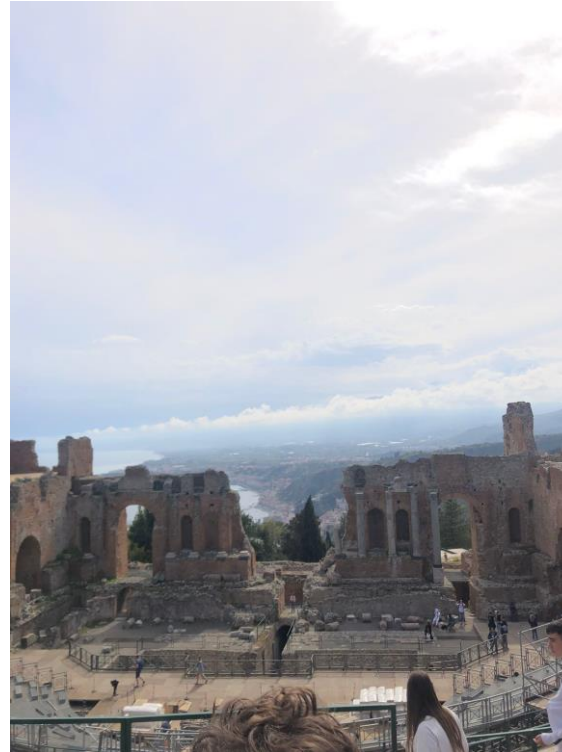

Day 4

- That morning we made the identity card of Carlos V.
- Then we attended an Italian class to learn a bit with the help of our Italians and afterwards we all had lunch at school.
- After eating we went to Militelo to see some churches.
- When we got back we went home and later we went out at night to party in Palagonia.

Day 5

- In the morning we went to visit Etna and later we went to Taormina and we were seeing the Greek theater.
- Then we ate there and we went back to Scordia. There we went for a walk after dinner and then we went home.

Day 6

- In the morning we visited Randazzo where we saw a few churches related to the passage of Carlos V through the town.
- Then we took the bus again to go to visit Catania. As soon as we arrived we had lunch and then they gave us a couple of talks explaining the site and then they gave us some free time.
- When we finished we went back to Scordia. Then at night we went to a friend's house for dinner and a little party.

Day 7

- In the morning we went to school to fill out some forms and other classmates and I were interviewed for the school radio.
- Later, we went home and after spending a while with the family I went to sleep for a while and rest. At night we went out to party.

Day 8

- We woke up early and we got ready to leave. At 8:30 we took the bus to go to the airport and return to Spain.
